

Position Summary: This three month internship will give the participant an in-depth experience with Sub Pop Records marketing and sales teams. Learn what has made Sub Pop a sustainable and prominent force in the music industry over the last 25 years and in particular how marketing is used to promote artists and track the success of a record over time.

Essential Duties include, but are not limited to:

- Engage with Sub Pop Sales and Marketing departments (Radio, Publicity, Digital Communications, and International) in supporting recent Sub Pop releases.

Education:

- High school graduate, or GED equivalent, actively pursuing a Bachelor's or Graduate degree

General Qualifications:

- Strong communication skills and an excitement to learn
- Team player who can also work independently
- A passion for music and/or the music industry
- An ability to interact with a very diverse group of people comfortably
- Excellent research skills and computer literacy
- Must be tolerant of dogs

Skills:

- Microsoft suite, including Office, Excel, and PowerPoint
- Internet Research Skills
- Database Assessment
- Google Docs/Drive